

Searching for a Reason

The Michael Schenker Group

We all need to have good timing
We all have the right to live
To spend our time hurting, fighting
We all have much more to give

The cry of the nations, Scream in our ears
A devil will promise the breath of our fears
Searching for the reason
The lines are all crossed
We fall Into darkness
And all of us lost

Searching for the reason
The answer is lost
We fall Into darkness
The future is shot
