

First Time

Michael Sembello

Dressed to kill
You took me without warning
I rehearsed the part a thousand times but I never knew how good it could feel

First Time, a stab in the dark
Then the second time, we took it to heart
And on the third time, we got the love across
First Time, a stab in the dark
And on the third time, we got the love across

Laughing girl!
My heart it beats like thunder
I am shaken up with a love so strong Right here, I know, is where we belong

Wrap your arms around me darling
Let me feel what I never believed
Could happen to me
