Rub The Stone

Michael Sembello

Magic and rituals of long lost years Which doctor shall you use to erase your fears[?] Whatever you believe is real to you The power in your prayer creates your own voodoo 'Cause you don't want to be alone When you feel the fear coming you better rub the stone

When your looking for the way You got to believe in something You got to rub the stone When there's nothing left to say You got to believe in something You got to rub the stone

Outcast is all he's ever been Holy fathers doomed and branded him with sin They taxed his soul and made it hard to survive Only one path for Galileo so he lied He can found the truth on his own And what he finally discovered...He had to rub the stone

When your looking for the way You got to believe in something You got to rub the stone When there's nothing left to say You got to believe in something You got to rub the stone
