

Love Is A Game Today

Michał Bajor

Some wear their masks at work
Some wear their masks at home
Some wear their masks at pray
Love is a game today

Some dress themselves as angels
Some dress themselves as devil
Same haven't yet decided
Love is a game today

So forget about my vanity and my sheer insanity
I promise to stay and play it your way
'cause love is a game, love is a game
Love is a game today

Some dream about redemption
Same fantasize about hell
Some turn their eyes to the heavens
Love is a game today

Same say "I do" when they don't Same say they won't when they will
Same many players around me
Love is a game today
