

Drift

Michelle Chamuel

I've been waiting up for an answer
I keep jumping for those telephone calls
It's okay for the minute I'm stranded
But do you catch my drift?
Do you catch my...
You've been on my mind
Every single second since the day you been gone
To the rise of the moon from the crack of the dawn
I know neither one of us admittin' that we're wrong
Ain't nothin' left for me to do but put it in a song now
Feels like I been on Cast Away stranded
Always runnin' back to you but leavin' empty handed
On a higher plane now but don't think I can land it
Who'd have ever thought you'd be the one I took for granted
I been abandoned, don't bet your chips on me
Felt my phone buzz like my mind playin' tricks on me
'Cause we haven't spoke in one whole week
And we both know until then we both won't sleep
So I don't need all your lies, you can keep 'em
How could I drift off the road after such a minor speed bump
Now I'm begging you to give me a chance
To reiterate the things I didn't say in the past, one love
I've been waiting up for an answer
I keep jumping for those telephone calls
It's okay for the minute I'm stranded
But do you catch my drift?
Do you catch my...
Finally I'll speak my peace
It's gon' take a lot of guts for me to read it and weep
You can trust me when I say I'll do whatever it takes
To go back and correct my mistakes
I can face the facts, I know I didn't treat you like I shoulda
All the things I coulda done that I shoulda and I woulda
But I guess hindsight it's 20/20
You the type of girl to stick around when I'm short on money
Through the thick and the thin, committing to win
Overdrive for your love, yeah I'm kickin' it in It's like every time I shoot I be missin' the rim
Never was I okay with tryna quit and be friends
It can't happen, you been my only one since the beginnin'
Didn't see myself losing you in the heat of the minute but I ain't gon' stop until we get it
I said I'll never throw that white flag and I meant it baby girl
I've been waiting up for an answer
I keep jumping for those telephone calls
It's okay for the minute I'm stranded
But do you catch my drift?
Do you catch my...
Always lookin' for the answer
How to feel that lift
When I'm telling you the answer
Catch my drift
Always lookin' for the answer
How to feel that lift
When I'm telling you the answer
Catch my...
I've been waiting up for an answer

I keep jumping for those telephone calls
It's okay for the minute I'm stranded
But do you catch my drift?
Do you catch my...
I've been waiting up for an answer
I keep jumping for those telephone calls
It's okay for the minute I'm stranded
But do you catch my drift?
Do you catch my...
