

Feel It

Michelle Chamuel

At a red light
It's been a long night
And the cars don't want to go

Had a hard day
No one beside me
Wishing I wasn't so low

I don't want to be down
But I'm not ready

If sometimes it feels like part of me is missing
That's alright - I turn the sound up till I feel it

See the headlights
Of cars that go by
Wonder where they have to go

It's been a long day
No one beside me
Wishing I wasn't so low

I don't want to be down
But I'm not ready

If sometimes it feels like part of me is missing
That's alright - I turn the sound up till I feel it
