

Miles of Memories

Michelle Chamuel

Keep the beat with my heart and get ready
Jumping in is the cure for being split into parts
I barrel into the next 20 seconds downhill like a rock

Seconds turn into years
Then a year's gone in a day
Will the miles of memories fade away?

I get lost in the rolls of old movies
Flip the frames in my head, they're flickering in the dark
I'm afraid of the next 20 seconds
That's what I forgot

How long can I stay
And keep myself awake
I don't have too much time
So I'm going to hold tight

And seconds turn into years
Then a year's gone in a day
Will the miles of memories fade away?
