

Bitch

Michelle Featherstone

You left your lips on my coffee cup
You forgot your sweater
I found your hair in my hairbrush
Thought you were so clever
But you're not no you're not

If you don't want my revenge
Don't come around here again
If you don't want consequence
Go find yourself another man
If you don't want to unleash
This bitch underneath
Stay away then
Stay away then
Stay away then

I smell your cheap perfume
Around my room
Yeah I know where you've been
I wish I could see your face
Knowing you can't erase
The remnants of your sin
No you can't
No you just can't win

If you don't want my revenge
Don't come around here again
If you don't want consequence
Go find yourself another man
If you don't want to unleash
This bitch underneath
Stay away then
Stay away then
Stay away then

But you should know I hate
To be unkind it's not my style
But you're in denial
You know that man
He belongs to me
It's my decree so you should leave

There isn't room for the both of us
So take a bus and leave
I wipe that stupid grin
Off of your perfect chin
If I see you in the streets
Yes I will so get ready for me

If you don't want my revenge
Don't come around here again
Stay away then (7x)
