

Christe Eleison

Michelle Tumes

Grant us grace and grant us hope
Grant us grace and grant us hope

When you bring this joy in our youth
In the age of want and despair
Oh, you're always leading
Oh, with the life you're bringing

And we wonder who we are
And we ponder who we've become
Ooh, our hearts have slumbered
Ooh, our feet have stumbled

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison
Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison

When we pass through ancient streets
Of our hopeless history
Ohh, our eyes are weeping
Ohh, but we are seeking

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison
Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison
