

Just Like You

Michelle Williams

I really wanna live inside of your heart where love resides.
And I really wanna be the apple of your eye. Just like David, Esther and Elijah.

I want to go faith to faith, I wanna see your face when I look in the mirror everyday. (Everyday)
I want to be just like you. Live life everyday like you do.
I want to be just you.
Cause you took everything that's no good and made me all brand new.

Look at my smile. That's yours.
You gave it to me when you said I was reborn.
And now that they see me shining that's not mine.
It came from you when I made you my desire.

I want to go faith to faith, I wanna see your face when I look in the mirror everyday. (Everyday)
I want to be just like you. Live life everyday like you do.
I want to be just you.
Cause you took everything that's no good and made me all brand new.

[Chief Wakil:]
You are who I wanna be like.
It's ironic if my eyes ain't focused on the sun I don't see right.
They say that is what he's like
I reply I guess it's in my genes
I ain't talking about Levi's
I talk truth and I ain't even gospel
That's the new definition of God flow
My rights don't outweigh my wrongs
but you still took more whips than the car show
I just thankful to know my debt has been paid since the day I was born
You can tell by my face and the way that it glows
They wanna know what the Cos-By no Raven Symone Glory! Glory!
I am winning!
God kid from a mad city. I ain't Kendrick
The dope thing about you no matter how much I mic mick you
I'm only bringing out the real me
No gimmicks like you.

[x2] And I gonna go glory to glory
Yeah I'm gonna go glory to glory
Yeah glory hallelujah

I want to be just like you. Live life everyday like you do.
I want to be just you.
Cause you took everything that's no good and made me all brand new.

(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, oh)
