

I.Feel.Right.Where.I.Am

Middle Class Rut

Does it drain you to be so tied to the ignorance of your pride?
Do you notice that you're always disappointed?
Is the end even worth the means?
Maybe you need to pick a different dream
Sometimes, what's left to do is give up on what you can't prove
Your fear's comin' for you
I can't help it, I feel right where I am

I feel locked inside my head
Wishin' my head would get ahead
But it's my luck that keeps me stuck in here

Would it kill you one time to try to be ok with being alive?
How did you grow up to be so jaded?
Is dying really anything more than a consequence of bein' born?
No home, no road, no friends, and nowhere to go
Am I worth it? Am I worth the air?
Am I worth it? Am I worth the air?

I feel locked inside my head
Wishin' my head would get ahead
But it's my luck that keeps me stuck in here
I feel locked inside my head
Wishin' my head would get ahead
But it's my luck that keeps me stuck in here
Am I worth it? Am I worth the air?
Am I worth it? Am I worth the air?

I feel locked inside my head
Wishin' my head would get ahead
But it's my luck that keeps me stuck in here
