

Nothin'

Middle Class Rut

Cause I just wanna move
Yeah I just wanna go
So if you're out there
Please just let me know

Cause I can't stand to lose
So maybe I should go
So if you're out there
Please just let me know

Show me your problems
I'll try to keep a straight face
Cause nothin' is enough
And everything is more than I need
This sympathetic love is
Is draining my emotion
Stuck inside the pith
Of someone else's version of me

You stand up, face the day
Another one's here to take you away
Another one's here to drag you down
Another one's here to tell you that you are nothin'

When you and I both know
That you are something
Yeah you're something

Cause I just wanna move
Yeah I just wanna go
So if you're out there
Please just let me know

Cause I can't stand to lose
So maybe I should go
So if you're out there
Please just let me know

Now I could be a failure
Bathing in defeat
And get used to the easy life
Of easy 'goes to me'

Or I could keep on running
Hope it all pays off
And even if I die before it does
What have I lost?

You stand up waste away
Another one's here to put you away
Another one's here to beat you down
Another one's here to make you feel like nothin'

So go ahead because today
I feel like something, I feel like something
Something
Yeah

Cause I just wanna move
So if you're out there
Please just let me know

Cause I can't stand to lose
So if you're out there
Please just let me know
Let me know!
