

Who's to Say

Middle Class Rut

It doesn't take much but a heartbeat and a full set of limbs
To pick out the shit parts of my life and trade them all in
Cause she moves in a way that I just can't explain
And I'll lie just to get her

What did you say?
I'm on it
What did you say?
I'm on it

Who's to say I was wrong anyway?
Who's to say I can run anyway?
When you can't decide whether to stay or say goodbye
Who's to say I was wrong, anyway?

It doesn't take much to want to get away
With a perfect escape
It's a gamble, but it's surely there for the take
Well she moves in a way that I just can't explain
And you'll lie just to get her

What did you say?
I'm on it
What did you say?
I'm on it

Who's to say I was wrong anyway?
Who's to say I can run anyway?
When you can't decide whether to stay or say goodbye
Who's to say I was wrong, anyway?

What did you say?
I'm on it
What did you say?
I'm on it

Who's to say I was wrong anyway?
Who's to say I can run anyway?
When you can't decide whether to stay or say goodbye
Who's to say I was wrong, anyway?
