

Excited But Not Enough

Midlake

Maybe I'll go tomorrow with a handshake
Maybe for everyone to see
Maybe I'll go so loud and so lovely
And take off with anyone that's free

We all like to gather up in circles
And treat the sofa with champagne
Oh and the conversation lasts for hours
It's easy to make it all the same

Millions sing, but I go inside
Excited but not enough

We like to get aboard the train, the train is here
With long coats and plastic bags and keys
Saying hello to everyone that made it
Oh sir don't topple down on me

Millions sing, but I go inside
Excited but not enough

She takes me around the back into the patio
Where she softly sings to me

Don't stay low
Always go
Surround yourself with the things you know
Oh please, please
