

A Poet's Prayer

Midnattsol

Look around
What's happening here Deforsting till the rain forest's rare Humans acts esvelty pure Abundance and abuse
We always want more

I wanna scream out
How could this be
If nothing's gonna stop this Ragnarock's real
How could this go so far Should start to care 'cause
the end is near

Listen to the victims of crime weeping their agony aloud Indigenous like animals caged
This iniquity makes me yell out of rage

I wanna scream out
How could this be
If nothing's gonna stop this Ragnarock's real
How could this go so far
Should start to care 'cause
the end is near

Hurt no living thing
a poet's poetry I sing for those who have no choice anymore for those who have no voice

for those who cannot fight anymore for those who have no rights

Imagine our Mother Earth where the ecosystem harmonically works Picture no melting ice with infertile bears with gazes so scared

How could this be
Ragnarock's real
How could this go so far
the end is near

How could this go so far
