

One Last Time

Midtown

All the times I've tried
I know they don't erase
The things that brought me down
Caused you to hurt caused you to hate
But now we've figured out
All that we won't do
So I can see that there's no doubt
When you say I know

(when) You're not looking
I'm still watching you
Can we forget those times
Can we move on

Please say that you
Can feel the same way that I do
Please say that I
Can be forgiven one last time

I'm lost without your sight
I can't think without your mind
There's comfort in the night
When I wake up by your side
I'm up here on my own
With nothing left to lose
I won't deny you anything
There's nothing I'll refuse
