On a bright day she passed away in the morning
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
It's a cruel way to take her away with no warning
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
He took her hands through every midnight hour
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
And they saw her fading away like a spring shower

A B C#m
I can see a complete life's time
E B C#m
Pictures and posters of times and fashion
A B C#m
Nineteen years with no reason or rhyme
E B C#m
Taken away in a crime of passion

C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
He stood to see if he could catch her breathing
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
But it was no good, he understood she was leaving
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
He looked outside the frosty window pane
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
And then he saw her moving away with his ? chain

A B C#m
I can see a complete life's time
E B C#m
Pictures and posters of times and fashion
A B C#m
Nineteen years with no reason or rhyme
E B C#m
Taken away in a crime of passion

C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
I see freedom in sight, it's a long climb
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
But she would not give up the fight for a long time
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
And I see a light go shining into night
C#m Ebm B Asm C#m Ebm B Asm
Baby it's all right we couldn't have changed it with second sight
