

Holding On

Miles Away

The way you look at me the way you talk to me
Your shallow ways just don't hold true
Just a pawn in your plan we'll keep pushing on
I'm sure you'll get there someday soon
Well I'm holding on take it for granted
I'm holding on I'm still here
Pretty clothes and a smile to match
You're going places fast
Climbing that ladder two steps at a time
Sit back let's watch the charade
Look at you you're a fucking joke
Well I'm holding on take it for granted
I'm holding on I'm still here
Holding on to what I know is right
Holding on to what I know is true
