

Can You See Me Now

Miles Kane

The tiger eyes Diamante style
Across the ocean, you're a billboard star
It leaves a bitter taste in my mouth
I'm full of regret, why can't I forget
I'm still seething

Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?
Ah-ah-ah

Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
'Cause if you saw me now
I bet you'd stop time, knock 'em down
And turn this whole thing back around

I bet you found him reading books
Cooped up watching spooks
Nice conventional looks
The sort you can take home to your mum
North Face t-shirts, two for one love affairs
Did you hear me weeping,
Or did you get scared?

Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?
Ah-ah-ah

Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
'Cause if you saw me now
I bet you'd stop time, knock 'em down
And turn this whole thing back around

Counterfeit, materialistic
Objective, serial optimist
I know you're always better on your own
Like the leopard print lotion you left in my hair
Yeah!

Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?
Ah-ah-ah

Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
Can you see me?
Can you see me now?
'Cause if you saw me now
I bet you'd stop time, knock 'em down
And turn this whole thing back around
