You may think I'm goosing but the truth is I'm a liar
I sell you what I tell you but you ain't a fucking buyer
You thinking that I'm sleeping when I'm creepin' in the night
They say it's bad karma when you live a double life

They say it's bad karma being such a heart-breaker
I've always picked a giver 'cause I've always been the taker
I'd rather just do it then not think about it later uh huh
Kiss me bad karma uh

The itsy bitsy spider went and spun a web of lies
I don't play the nicest but it ain't a fucking crime
I never learn my lesson so I always do it twice
They say it's bad karma when you live a double life

They say it's bad karma being such a heart-breaker
I've always picked a giver 'cause I've always been the taker
I'd rather just do it then not think about it later uh huh
Kiss me bad karma uh

I don't give a fuck, I don't believe in love
That's why I do what I wanna do yeah
I don't give a fuck, I don't believe in love
That's why I do what I wanna do yeah
I don't give a fuck, I don't believe in love
That's why I do what I wanna do yeah
I don't give a fuck, I don't believe in love
I do what I wanna do hey

They say it's bad karma being such a heart-breaker
I've always picked a giver 'cause I've always been the taker
I'd rather just do it then not think about it later uh huh
Kiss me bad karma uh
