

Holy Fall

Milla Jovovich

Brace myself space myself throw myself from the window throw myself from an aerial view of the highest a holy fall
it was a holy fall...

Holy fall
it was a holy fall that brought me here
holy fall
it was a holy fall that brought me

Wrinkled old doll face on her way to the ball I've got only myself to thank for it all I can picture you almost brushin up against me ican picture you almost touchin me and it's not dark at all it's not dark at all in here

Yea, it brought me to this place into this gorgeous time
