

Looking For Room

Milla Jovovich

Oh jesus don't stare
go to the store
and buy you some air
buy a six pack of air
and bring it back home to you

She said she's wait for me with her blonde, red, brown hair she dances to lonely old songs
in the living room

Looking for room

Wash me and let me get cold spinning in circles to dry try to lead me into the fog just like a dog

And it sounds so amazing like backwards guitar
I move behind
the silk folding screen door

Looking for room
