

What I Need

Mindy McCready

I know if I just keep my distance
You will see what you are missing
And you'll learn no one can love you like I do
I look involved in conversation,
But I'm struggling with temptation
So tonight, as you walk into the room

What I want is to hold you
'Cause my world without you
Is just another lonely place to be
And what I need is to hold out
Until you have no doubt
There's only one love for you
And it's me
So I'll be strong until you can believe
In what I need.

My impression of what love is
Comes and goes like your kisses
'Til the day
When I hold you in my arms
Oh, I'll admit that you're my weakness
I'm gonna fight these feelings
Until you can promise me your heart.

What I want is to hold you
Because my world without you
Is just another lonely place to be
And what I need
Is to hold out
Until you have no doubt
There's only one love for you
And it's me
So I'll be strong
Until you can believe
In what I need.

What I need is to hold out
Until you have no doubt
There's only one love for you
And it's me
So I'll be strong
Until you can believe in what I need.

What I need.
