

Calamity

Miracle Of Sound

Take a deep breath
Open your eyes
Sweet slumber's over
It's time to rise

So much to alter
To rectify
I've been here waiting
To show you why

Backtrack
Building the road back
Stone cracks
Hammers on the attack

We ride
Over the divide
I guide
Keep you on the right side

There's something in your past
That you can't erase
Build the road in front of you
You can't fix a broken heart
In a couple of days
So bring it back or start anew

You'll find your Bastion
Take to the skies
You'll hear the sweetest
Of lullabies

You'll learn your history
So steeped in shame
You'll feel the guilt of
The ones to blame

Cloudburst
Moving in reverse
Old curse
Thought it couldn't get worse

Still land
Company once grand
Withstand
Knuckles of your own hand

There's something in your past
That you can't erase
Build the road in front of you

You can't fix a broken heart
In a couple of days
So bring it back or start anew

Turnin' back is bound to be
Just another calamity

Take a deep breath
Open your eyes
Sweet slumber's over
It's time to rise
