

No One

Miracle Of Sound

Some may yield
But me I never could be tamed
Through moors and meadows
Cloaked, concealed
Never to forget my name
I walk the shadows

Under the eyes of no one
Fear every face familiar
Wounds of the wolves still open
Back to the weeping walls of winter

Underneath the eyes
Underneath the eyes
Many are the faces
Underneath the eyes
Under every guise
Hold on to my name

Lights go down
Underneath the titan's shield
Through brooks and bridges
Hunting grounds
Water spilling over steel

This cub grows vicious
Under the eyes of no one
Fear every face familiar
Wounds of the wolves still open
Back to the weeping walls of winter

Underneath the eyes
Underneath the eyes
Many are the faces
Underneath the eyes
Under every guise
Hold on to my name

Dance of water
Ghosts of form
Blood becomes the mask
Tears of altars
Sight reborn
Taker of the task

Underneath the eyes
Underneath the eyes
Many are the faces
Underneath the eyes
Under every guise
Hold on to my name
