

Old rivalries are so hard to mend
Were it so easy to choose your friends

You were there by my side
A friend through it all
Now I'm beaten and bruised
And I'm falling apart

Though I tear and divide
I won't let you fall
There is blood pumping through
Your machine of a heart

Reclaimer

Don't make a promise that you can't keep
Can't fix this madness it runs too deep

You were there by my side
When the chips they were down
Now I'm beaten and bruised
And I'm falling apart

Though I tear and divide
I won't let you drown
There is blood pumping through
Your machine of a heart

Reclaimer

Follow the forerunners, requiem's near
Unto the dawn you and I persevere
Starting to fade but we're staunch by design
I feel the rampancy piercing my mind

You were there by my side
A friend through it all
Now I'm beaten and bruised
And I'm falling apart

Though I tear and divide
I won't let you fall
There is blood pumping through
Your machine of a heart

You were there by my side
You were there by my side
Now I tear and divide
There is blood pumping through your machine of a heart

Reclaimer
