

Revolution Spark

Miracle Of Sound

Clench your fists
Resist

Awoken from the still again
Anger is a rigid chain
Fastened to our souls

And this is not the land we knew
Sterile ghosts indentured to
The demons of control

Hope is a burning fusion
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For the fall
Hard is the retribution
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For us all

And all that they have taken, killed
Those once strong have lost their will
Fawn upon the vile
So see that flawless has no face
Learn that rightness has no race
Reclaim, reconcile

Hope is a burning fusion
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For the fall
Hard is the retribution
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For us all

Clench your fists
Resist

Hope is a burning fusion
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For the fall
Hard is the retribution
Spark of a revolution
Now you're clenching your fists
Clenching your fists
For us all

We're lighting up the embers
Rising from the dust

Clench your fists
Resist
