

Missing Pieces

Mishon

Ain't no doubt that I want you to myself
I'm feeling your love I don't want nobody else
I've been working hard 10 jobs I been building
But I ain't doing all this for myself
I been staying silent stacking hunnids to the sky
Sometimes I look up and I ask God why
Why you make a young kid so damn fly
And when you finna put a real queen in my life

I'm missing some pieces
Baby say it's real these feelings that we feel
Cause I keep finding I'm missing some pieces
Here's a letter from my heart it's signed and sealed
I'm missing some pieces

Been trying my best just to live my best life
I want you right now and I want you in the next life
So ima give you everything right now
Cause lately I've been focussing on getting my cheque right
I can have everything but everything ain't enough
Traveling the world by myself ain't enough
The money the girls and cars and house ain't enough
Baby that's love
Girl you know that I would trade everything
And my chain cost mo wedding ring
Put that on everything everything everything

I'm missing some pieces
Baby say it's real these feelings that we feel
Cause I keep finding I'm missing some pieces,
Here's a letter from my heart it's signed and sealed
I'm missing some pieces

I'm missing some pieces
Cause I keep finding I'm missing some pieces
I'm missing some pieces
I'm missing some pieces
I'm missing some pieces
