

This right here is gonna make it clear.
That I've been tryna wait for you to see me here.
It's crazy cause no girl has made me wait like this.
I'm used to having whatever a guy could wish.
I see you wasting time making me feel like I want to want you so bad.
I'm 'bout to lose my mind (Yeah)

Feel like I'm in the play-offs, sitting on the bench.
Begging the coach to put me in.
And sometimes I get the sense;
The game's gonna end and my team's not gonna win.

I'm on the sidelines (Sidelines) On the sidelines.
Hoping that one day you gonna be mine's.
From the sidelines, on the sidelines.
And are you gonna come give me a try.

Except these lame old dudes are in your face.
That you, have good intentions if you only knew.
That to them you're a conquest only for just love.
They got no real commitment and I can't see how.
You could pass up on me, might sound corny.
But it's real, I see a future with you (Ooh whoa)
I'm having crazy trouble, it's a struggle.
Cause I know that it should be me and you.

I'm on the sidelines (Sidelines) On the sidelines.
Hoping that one day you gonna be mine's.
From the sidelines, on the sidelines.
And are you gonna come give me a try.

Don't know what I'm a do without you.
Trust, when I'm by myself I think about you.
But the more I try, I just can't see why.

I'm on the sidelines (Sidelines) On the sidelines.
Hoping that one day you gonna be mine's.
From the sidelines, on the sidelines.
And are you gonna come give me a try.

I'm on the sidelines (Standing here)
On the sidelines, waiting for you to see me.
Hoping that one day you gonna be mine's.
From the sidelines, on the sidelines.
And are you gonna come give me a try baby
