

I Can't Give You Anything

Miss Li

No I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got
I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got

I've been loving you with all my heart
And I dare you to say
That you love me back with all your heart
But you don't seem to reply
You give me money, you buy me things
Things that I don't really need
You seem so happy, you seem so pleased
But I am not satisfied

I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got
I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got

I've been so generous, I've been so good
Still I'm feeling so misunderstood
I'm spoiling you with my love

But you're not acting like you should
It started out so beautiful
Like our love was pretty and strong
But now, honey, when I'm with you
I just feel so alone

And I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got
I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got

I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got
I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got

I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got
No I can't give you anything
If you don't give me all you've got

La la la la...
La la la la...
