

Just A Flirt

Miss Montreal

I met you in a bar
I never thought it would come this far
Patience is a thing I lack
That's why I turn my back on you
You do that too

Yes it's so scary to fall in love
When you don't know someone that well
Could you fall for me forever?
Don't you turn your back on me?
I am falling in love with you anyway

Last time that I saw you
We were sober didn't have anything to talk about
We got ourselves a beer or two
And than it came all out
You liked me too

Yes it's so scary to fall in love
When you don't know someone that well
Could you fall for me forever?
Don't you turn your back on me?
I am falling in love with you anyway

When the alcohol is running though our veins
We order one more drink and than the love remains
So it's slibslabbertyslob that I say
I love you but we both know that's not true

So scary to fall in love
When you don't know someone that well
Could you fall for me forever?
Don't you turn you back on...

So scary to fall in love
When you don't know someone that well
Could you fall for me forever?
Don't you turn you back on me?
I am falling in love with you
You were just a flirt
You were an asshole anyway
