

A Heart Will Pass By

Missing Heart

You've crossed the edge of paradise
I feel you won't stay
There is some truth behind your lies
Whatever you say

For your mind is far away from here
Locked up in a sigh
There is only one forgotten tear
Hidden in your eyes

So baby just take your chance
And maybe you'll join the dance
You never will win if you don't try
So baby get under way
And maybe there'll come a day
When you find an Island in the sky
Don't cry
A heart will pass by
Don't cry
A heart will pass by

You will feel the touch of liberty
And the winds of change will blow
You will leave the grounds of loneliness
Your heart knows where to go

For your mind is far away from here
Locked up in a sigh
There is only one forgotten tear
Hidden in your eyes
