

Prison Of Passion

Missing Heart

When the moon is high
I'm in a prison of passion
And as time drops by
I try to get over you
But it's all in vain
Can't evade your magic
Cause the walls
Of love won't let me through
The prison of passion
Aaaahhh

I met you and all my dreams come true
There was nothing I could hide from you
No nothing
And your eyes they put a spell on me
I was helpless cos my fantasy
Went crazy
I knew your love was gonna break my heart
I felt your look just like a poisoned dart
Yet I felt good
When we made love I felt strong and free
The day you left you had me on my knees
Just like tonight

We were lovers in a stormy night
Never asking what is wrong what's right
No never
When you kissed me it was clear to me
Only you can be my destiny
Forever
I was a victim of your burning lips
And just surrendered to your fingertips
Yet I felt fine
You gave me that eternal touch
However much you gave me it was not too much
I need you so
