

Hands off My Heart

MKTO

[Chorus: Tony Oller]

Baby you don't even know it, but you're leaving me in pieces
You take, you take, you take me apart
Baby I surrender it's too late for me to get your hands off, hands off
Get your hands off my heart

[Verse 1: Tony Oller]

Trying to keep myself together, but I'm losing my mind every second that I think of you
Stealing every single piece of me like loving's a crime
It should be illegal what you do

[Pre-Chorus: Tony Oller]

There's only so much I can take
I tried so hard, I can't escape
Your body's always in my way
There you are
There you are

[Chorus: Tony Oller]

Baby you don't even know it, but you're leaving me in pieces
You take, you take, you take me apart
Baby I surrender it's too late for me to get your hands off, hands off
Get your hands off my heart
Get your hands off my heart

[Verse 2: Tony Oller & Malcom Kelley]

She's a maneater
Damn schemer
Caught her on the bus with the band leader
Girl-girl gone bad, so deceiving
Hot was she coming, cold leaving
Taking what you wanted here, too good to be true
Always heard about the warning, never thought it'd be you
Take-taking a chance like I was the man
While she leaving with my heart in her hands

[Pre-Chorus: Tony Oller]

There's only so much I can take
I tried so hard, I can't escape
Your body's always in my way
There you are
There you are

[Chorus: Tony Oller]

Baby you don't even know it, but you're leaving me in pieces
You take, you take, you take me apart
Baby I surrender it's too late for me to get your hands off, hands off
Get your hands off my heart

[Bridge: Malcom Kelley]

You got me trying to break free
But your hands on my heart, got a hold of me
I don't know, is this really how it's supposed to be?
Or am I in a cold and I'm feenin' - Jodeci
The way that you walk
The way that you talk

You got me laying dead in the streets surrounded by chalk
I knew what you was doing from the start, but couldn't stop
Squeezing with your hands around my heart till it pops (pop)

[Refrain: Tony Oller]

Take your hands off, hands off, off me
Take your hands off, hands off, off me
Take your hands off, hands off, off me
Take 'em off me
Take 'em off me

[Chorus: Tony Oller]

Baby you don't even know it, but you're leaving me in pieces
You take, you take, you take me apart
Baby I surrender it's too late for me to get your hands off, hands off
Get your hands off my heart
