

West Hollywood

MØ

I turn on the radio but there's nothing that I wanna hear
I just wanna drift away and listening to some old shit
Oh, lately I've been holding back every single tear
Now I just wanna turn it all the way up and get the fuck away from here

Oh, you know I love you
You know that I do (know that I do)
And I know that I should stay
If I was braver I would

Yeah, but right now
All I wanna do is just
Call up my mom
And get my ass out of West Hollywood
Hollywood, yeah
