

Revenant Of The Sea

Mob Rules

I can feel my time has come
The ocean be my grave
Reaching for the other side
But left between these worlds

My deepest fear and agony
I'm dead, somehow alive.
Like all that die in sunken land
One day we must rise up

Would you please remember me
Since I never will return
Won't you please recall my name:
Revenant of the Sea

The Northern Sea, my purgatory
Four generations long
My descendants I'll have to meet
To lay down in their beds

If you can feel or see my ghost
Deep grief captures your soul
Don't touch me please nor fear my mien
Release me from my pain

As you believe, I become freer
Salt footprints on your floor
Will tell you that I be still there
Till I return no more
