

Tye Dye The Night

Mod Sun

Where ever you were at mentally when that inspiration struck
Please stay there, write to us daily
Yours truly, anybody who gives a fuck about you
The cause and outcome of anything good, that everything has to offer
So yeah

The light bulb above my head deserves some credit
It seems to never turn off, I won't dim it
Believe and I want to believe in life's good.
I get it, could change your idea, this whole thing in five minutes
 chapel makin moves, and really get it
Yeah hippie hop's too far away from any gimmick
I like my style, I dig my curls, I won't trim it
At the end of the line, I'm screaming, please more time
I'm so fucking happy I'm alive, you can never say you never tried, and if yo u did it'd be a lie.
Must tye dye the night and save the sky

Give away everything that you bought,
So the last good advice I've got Share your perspective, don't let it be a mystery
And generate actions from a place of purity
4 AM watching cartoons from the 70's
Money's cool but I'd rather make some memories
I'm unraveling, I've been traveling like a maniac,
Yeah I've been on the road, man's its worthy, Jack Kerouac

Mike Yibyrant said it's almost our time
We're piecing together what was once known as the great divide
Public speaking from my individualistic misfits,
Thoughts to things - Newton's 3rd law of physics

So..... health, wealth, success, and happiness yeahhhh
This thing between my two eyelids, beauty folds
Want some real art, I've got an easel in my studio
Painting with colors I bet you ain't ever used before
I see this sounds just like a "tangerine-lavender"

Plenty of d-a-z-e on my calendar
So focused I should sit on the lens of the camera
Having for years working to better my self as a human Til the world keeps turning with my help,
In turn we're nothing without you as well
I truly believe in yall
I truly hope you can tell,
I swear I stare every night up at the ceiling where I'm laying,
Going over every word,
Making sure you're inspired by what I'm saying.
Barely blinking.
Thinking I've got to find a way to extinct the bullshit.
So if it wasn't for a handshake, you're fixing to need to get a grip

No matter the amount of negativity you're presented with, five minutes from now could be your best moment.

Now see I'm gonna say that again cause that's the nicest thing I ever wrote

No matter the amount of negativity you're presented with, five minutes from now could be your best moment.

Sit back and think about that...

Mod... sun... hippie... hop....

Health, wealth, success, and happiness, no stress

That's what you possess.

Movement on dreams. stand under none.
