

...And Beyond

Modern Baseball

Are you hearing me? Are you "Embracing Facts?"
Say things you understand, that way you're catching my drift.
Will you stay with me? Will you sleep here tonight?
Just don't walk away when I say "crush."

Are you here with me? Or are you out in Space, orbiting?

Think you know everything we got coming?
Will you stay with me? Please don't walk away.
Can't wrap my head around this. I don't wanna understand.

You and I have come such a long way, for us to start again.
