

My Love

Modern Baseball

My love, my love is more than enough
To fight off any fightings of
Your lust for him, my loathing spits or that little pity party face
You make when you're not up to par for one of our arguments

My love, my love is more than enough
To fend off those monsters from
Your childhood, our kids better not live the same
I'm not afraid to say how I feel, even if it's hate

We are more than
Just another
Movie moment
I'm not gonna wait for rain for me to kiss you

My love, my is more than just fun
Not just late night sex
And trust me two is not as bad as one

My love, my love is partially serious
I can't wait to get done work to start arguing with you

My love, my love is bursting straight through my guts
I've crawling on your floor pleading "I haven't had enough"

My love, my love is cunning yet tough
Some compare it to a fire, but comparing's not us

We are more than
Just another
Movie moment
I'm not gonna wait for rain for me to kiss you

My love, my love is more than enough
I'm gonna stay here forever and f**king adore you

My love, my love is more than just love
It's figuring everything out when we have no clue, My Love

We are more than
Just another
Movie moment
I'm not gonna wait for rain for me to kiss you

I'm not gonna wait for rain for me to kiss you
My Love
