

One Way To Kill A Werewolf

Modern Day Escape

Your hands they are on my throat
Squeezing so tight enough to choke
Choke me out
I'm fading out
In the cages I will lay
Waiting here until my day
You set me free
You set me free
For now I will wait
Biting and holding my tongue and I will wait

If I told you
I'd have to kill you
Our love for war will never die
In this battlefield
There's only one way
To end our lives
This silver bullet around my neck

I'll carve that smile from your face
And then you'll know how it tastes
All the mistakes you have made
When your mouth hits my blade
And now I'll sleep tonight
Knowing your bloods in my veins
Ripping the flesh from your

Tonight we rise up
And now you know our secret

If I told you
I'd have to kill you
Our love for war will never die
In this battlefield
There's only one way
To end our lives
This silver bullet around my neck

Half breeds
Crawling the streets
Dripping flesh from their teeth

Let's go

The stars collide and I know I will never see my love again

So I'll bless this room with holy water and cheap thrills

What if I drag this knife across his throat to wear his skin

Now I'll never get my chance to see my love again.
