

Race Car Grin You Ain't No Landmark

Modest Mouse

Looks like accounting's not accountable
For anything or anyone at all
Johnny took the fall
Johnny took the fall

I know the horse was fast, ran the real big track
One by one, without heart attack, oh no
A tight line just went slack
A tight line just went slack

He's got a race car grin, all smiling chin
Your words are no longer going to bother him that much
He's got the Midas touch
He's got the Midas touch

Hey now, what's the scoop on what's his face?
Got a backwater nothing but he runs the place from halls
Runs it from the halls
