

Morning Dies Here

Moist

Clear light wipes her arm upon her sleeve
Dances while the city burns
All the world is fast asleep
I know that you're lonely
I know that you're dying to believe
If you're quiet you can hear it now
Ice is breaking
We fall fast
Blame ourselves
Morning dies here
Morning dies here
Breathe deep
Taste the possibility
All our life is wasted here
Everyone just dying for release
I know that you're crying
I know that you're dying to be free
If you're quiet you can hear it now
Ice is breaking
We fall fast
Blame ourselves
Morning dies here
Morning dies here
Give up hope
Save ourselves
Morning dies here
Morning dies here
We fall fast
Blame ourselves
Blame yourself
Give up hope
To save ourselves
Morning dies here
We fall fast
Blame ourselves
Morning dies here
Morning dies here
Give up hope
To save ourselves
Morning dies here
Morning dies here
