Molly Maguire

The innocence of yours
Is running through out my head
Can't find a chance to catch my breath

A never ending dream
You'll become a part of me
Day or night
Dark or light you'll see
Your taking over that thing called my shadow

And what happens under stays the wind
And what's south of here is taking away my shame
Oh oh

And when I can't see at all
I turn to you
You tell me that you'll never let me fall

You hold my hand so tight
You give me all your love
At that moment I knew
You're the one I'm always thinking of

You're a never ending dream (A never ending dream)
You'll become a part of me
Day or night
Dark or light you'll see
You've taken over that thing called my shadow

You're running though out my head
Can't seem to quite know why
But here in my bed
I feel like I can fly

You're a never ending dream
You've become a part of me
Day or night
Or at dark or light you'll see
You've taken over that thing called my shadow
