

Don't Ever Tell Locke What He Can't Do

Moneen

I took everything you said Harder than we should
Are we wanting more
Than to try to sell you out
Are you one he's trying to say we can't
Yes I can
And you can't have all that you want
Yes I can
And when your wrong I'm still not right sign it off
And throw it back against the wall
You asked me how
And what if I resent you now
And what if I can't trust
In anything you say you're trying to say we can't
Yes I can
You can't have all that you want
Yes I can
And when your wrong I'm still not right
let's start again
Replace it
Let's start again
Erase it
So move along and face it you trying to say we can't
Yes I can
Yes I can
And when your wrong I'm still not right
