

New Life (Intro)

Monica

Hello?
Hey, Mary.
Oh what's goin' on sis'?
Nothing. Just thinking man. Gotta pack up my yesterdays.
But sometimes you gotta remember where you came from to see exactly where you're goin'.
Yeah.
You are a great mother, a great friend, a great wife.
And when you have a man that loves you as you do and two children that adore you and a mother that is always there for you...
Aha...
You have a blessed life.
God is with you everywhere you go and he loves you.
Yea, you're right.
You know what to do. Just enjoy your new life.

I'm packing up my yesterdays
And I won't look back no no no
Come too far from all of that (all of that)
Won't look back (won't look)
Won't look back (won't look)
You know I gotta stay on track (oh, I gotta stay on track)
Won't look back (won't look back)
Come too far from all of that (uh uh uh uh)
Life new new new new new new life...

Gotta embrace my new life
