

Atheism Is Not A Crime

Monkey Business

Fallacies
Sounding oh so fine
Laser beams
Burning through your mind
Memories
All the joy you find
Suddenly
Bait is on the line

Why would you live without me
and treat me like a fool
Now you see it is not so free
As I told you
Life is cruel

Do you see the halo on my head
Wanna be happy
when you are dead

Why would you live without me
and treat me like a fool
Now you see it is not so free
As I told you
Life is cruel

Wooden beads
Changing in your hand
Harmonies
I do not understand

Why would you live without me
and treat me like a fool
Now you see it is not so free
As I told you
Life is cruel
