

Golddigger

Monkey Business

Here comes the golddigger
Looking for prey in the town
She is a lust trigger
And she is hitting the ground
Here comes the golddigger
Looking for prey in the town
She is a
She is a
A size bigger
Time to take you down

She looks for someone new before her funds will drain
It's time to hitch her carriage
To the speeding train

Standing on the grill
the wind blows up her skirt
Just like in the movies
She will hit pay dirt
as you will enter the race

Getting her attention does not seem so hard Jingle with your car keys and the show will start

She is entertaining and she likes to play Something I gotta tell you better walk away before you turn into clay

Yet you know it's plain
Yet you know it's plain
Just to fly from her nest
You know it's plain Aiee-yaiee-yaiee
