

My Day Is A Russian Play

Monkey Business

The first Act may begin with me in bed alone Getting up would mean to put the dreams on hold The dreams of orchards lakes and boats on summer days
All I can see through dirty window panes is haze
The clocks and servants running late
What is the cause
I am too tired to speculate

How it's gonna go Honestly
hard to say
hard to say
The genre is set in stone
It's for me
for a day
a Russian play

In second act my fellow Oblomovs in bar
will move too close to me and bitch about the czar Some actors with no parts will simply stand around and boys with axes drink themselves into the ground
The Third Act Girl will be too late

What is the cause
I am too tired
to speculate
