

Funeral Song

Mono Inc.

The light flares red
at the end of the hall were in a ring of fire She pants for breath on a canopy bed this house is a like pyre The windows burst the mob yells loud down on the lane
The fume soaks in through the crack of the door and sea breeze fans the flames But she says hey

If this is the end, kiss me amongst the fiery glow
if this is the end, kiss me
before it's time to go
She say thank you for your faith and thank youfor your love if this is the end
if this is the end

The light flares red
at the end of the hall
There's no escape from here the floor boards glow and the timbers creek but she is free from fear in the quivering light I see her smile
She lying in my arms
The fume soaks in
and a funeral song is playing in our hearts and she goes hey

If this is the end, kiss me
amongst the fiery glow
if this is the end, kiss me
before it's time to go
She say thank you for your faith
and thank youfor your love
if this is the end
if this is the end

If this is the end, kiss me
amongst the fiery glow
if this is the end, kiss me
before it's time to go
She say thank you for your faith
and thank youfor your love
if this is the end
if this is the end

if this is the end
if this is the end

if this is the end