Fatal Millennium

Monstrosity

Destroyers of the world before Underneath a deeper realm Parallels in their shallow common ground Brings the destruction of their will

The racing minds of the sickened Holding fast to a world so vast Empty beings so convinced In the end is when their time begins Rivaled like none before Unchallenged in the face of hate Adorned with the tides of atrophy

Formed from the injected fallacy Faced with concepts of reality Beginning with the experiment Betrayal will come at the first sight of blood

In the trenches of corruption

Efforts to ignite the plan Undermining will has now unfoiled Deviation of their conflict demands Rising constant turmoil

Rivaled like none before Unchallenged in the face of hate Adorned with the tides of atrophy The fatal millennium--Exists!--Within their molecular minds A worldless philosophy--Transgress!--Against societies rise And the ills of technology--Resist!--Their formidable ties And the rise of our obscurity--Erase!--Their subliminal crimes Begin the tides of atrophy

Forced fed apocalypse Conspiracy denies truth Deceptive vows cannot be stopped Their lies feed the youth Caustic fashions become the trend To embellish the foolish engaged deep within Unidirectional patterns soon blend

Media blitz Propels their gain Brain wash tactics For a propaganda storm Destroyers of the world take hold Undermining will now takes control
